

REPRESENTATIVE
FRED A. STOCKS,
CHIEF CLERK U. S. TREASURY.

United States Treasury Exhibit,
World's Columbian Exposition,
Washington, D. C. April 20, 1893.

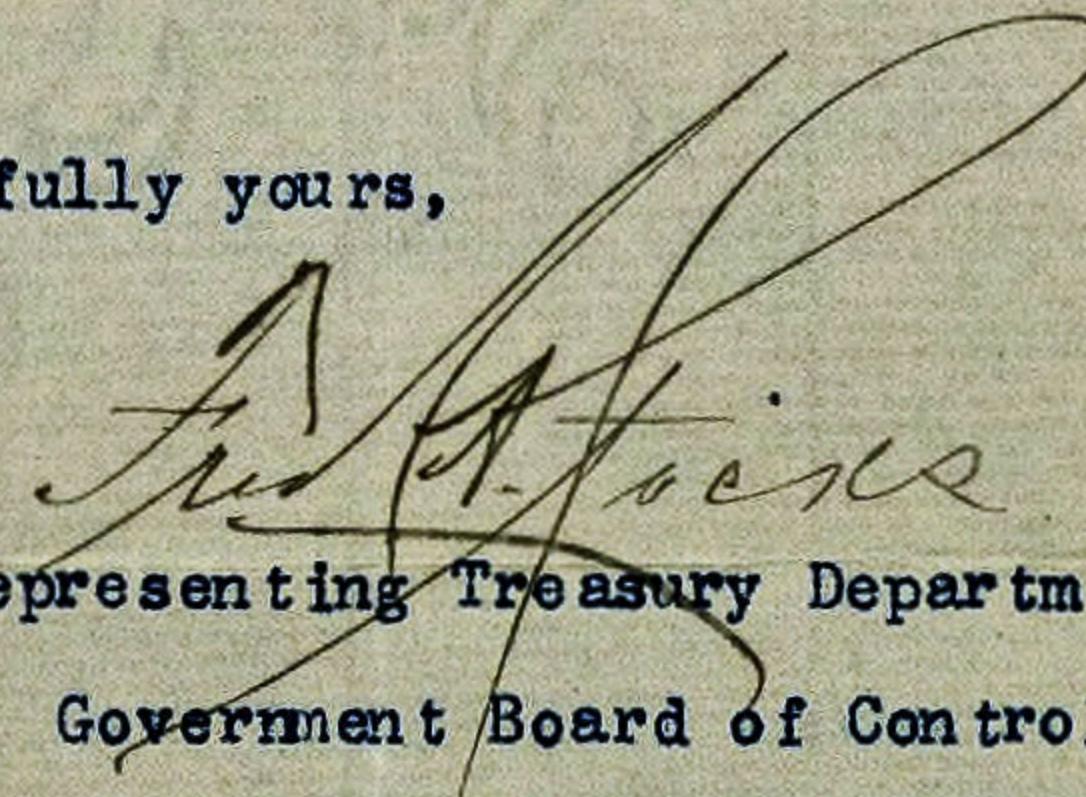

Mr. O. C. Bobyshell,
Superintendent of the Mint.

Sir:

I take pleasure in acknowledging receipt of your letter of the 19th instant, and in reply I would say that I have recommended to the Honorable the Secretary of the Treasury that you be authorized to proceed to Chicago, Illinois, to assist in the installation of the exhibit of the Bureau of the Mint of the Treasury Department at the World's Columbian Exposition.

I shall be in Chicago on Monday and will at once make arrangements for the proper protection of the coins that you intend to exhibit there. As soon as I have done this I shall wire you to that effect, and you can then express them without further delay.

Respectfully yours,

Fred A. Stocks
Representing Treasury Department
Government Board of Control.
